

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Middlesex 3 Coalition Partners with the New England Real Estate Journal and the Burlington Area Chamber of Commerce to Host a “Future of Middlesex 3 Coalition Commercial Real Estate Summit”

Burlington, MA-The New England Real Estate Journal (NEREJ), Middlesex 3 Coalition, and Burlington Area Chamber of Commerce (BACC) will host a “Future of Middlesex 3 Coalition Commercial Real Estate Summit,” on August 9th at 8:00 AM at 4 Burlington Woods Drive, Burlington, MA. Registration is $79, Middlesex 3 Coalition and BACC members can attend for $59. To attend please register at: <https://m3coalition.eventbrite.com>.

Come and meet old friends, create new contacts, or learn something new during two, one-hour panel discussions from real estate and business professionals in the Middlesex 3 Coalition market. The Middlesex 3 Coalition is a regional partnership of nine Middlesex County communities, Bedford, Billerica, Burlington, Chelmsford, Lexington, Lowell, Tewksbury, Tyngsborough and Westford with the support of the Massachusetts Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development.

The first panel discussion will begin at 9:00 AM and will highlight, “Real Estate Trends in the Middlesex 3 Region. Who is coming to the region? Why are companies attracted to the area? What are the key factors in a company’s relocation decision?” The moderator of this panel is Massachusetts Secretary of Housing and Economic Development, Jay Ash. The panel includes, Paul Asmar - Head of Real Estate and Property Services - EMD Millipore, Jonathan Proffitt - Sr. Director, Global Real Estate & Facilities - Kronos Incorporated, Andrew Gallinaro- Senior Vice President, Director of Asset and Property Management- National Development, Mark Reardon- Executive Vice President, Partner – CBRE, and John Boyle- Vice Chairman – Cushman & Wakefield.

The second panel discussion will begin at 10:00 AM and will cover, “What developers, property owners and municipalities are doing to attract businesses and respond to corporate needs? Current projects, future construction plans, transportation, amenities”. The moderator of this panel is Robert Buckley of Riemer & Braunstein. The panel includes, Scott Weiss – Vice President of Development- The Gutierrez Company, , Katie Enright- Senior Civil Engineer, Office Manager - Howard Stein Hudson, Charles Reilly- Vice President – Dacon, and Todd Fremont-Smith- Senior Vice President and Director of Mixed-Use Projects– Nordblom Company.

After the panel discussions there will be time for networking with the panelists and event attendees. Over 150 professionals are anticipated to be in attendance including investors, bankers, brokers, lawyers, developers, builders, property managers, insurance agents and service and suppliers.

Thank you to our event sponsors! Venue Sponsor: The Gutierrez Company, Gold Sponsor: Riemer & Braunstein, Corporate Sponsors: Erland Construction, ahp Architects and Dacon, Vendor Sponsors: Howard Stein Hudson, Lowell Five, Nordblom Company and National Development.

NEREJ has fourteen summits a year in Massachusetts, Northern New England, Connecticut and NY. Upcoming summits, Construction Trends Summit September 28th and Hotel Summit September 6th. For more information to be a speaker, sponsor or attendee please contact Rick Kaplan at rkaplan@nerej.com or 781-878-4540 x247.

To learn more information about the Middlesex 3 Coalition please visit www.middlesex3.com.