

JAMIE GABRIEL ENTERPRISE BANK

CHIEF HUMAN RESOURCE OFFICER, EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

BIOGRAPHY

Jamie Gabriel is an 18 year veteran of Enterprise. She assumed the leadership role for the human resources team in December 2011 after holding various roles within the department including recruitment and employment, Human Resource systems and technology, HR process improvement, benefits and compensation administration and learning and development. In her current role she works closely with her Human Resources team to support the Bank's strategic growth objectives and influence our Bank's culture through employee engagement, talent management, total rewards, and workforce and succession planning strategies. Jamie completed Enterprise's management training program in 2000 after graduating from UMass Lowell with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, concentrating in Finance and Management. She also earned her Master of Science in Human Resources from Suffolk University and holds a Professional in Human Resources and SHRM-CP designations

Jamie is currently a Board Member and Secretary for St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, HR Committee member for the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Salem and Family Services of Merrimack Valley, where she is also an Advisory Board member.

